

Homework

To do or not to do!

Own Experience of Homework

- What kind of homework did you do?
Did you enjoy doing homework?

The importance of home learning

- At All Saints', we recognise that learning takes place everywhere and particularly at home. We fully appreciate the great learning and experiences you share with your children such as reading books, visits, playing games, talking to each other, shopping, baking and laughing.

Why Set Homework

- To encourage an effective partnership between home and school.
- To promote an independence and enthusiasm for learning.
- To consolidate, reinforce and revise skills.
- To develop a sense of responsibility and organisational skills for learning.

Expectations

- Children to complete homework to the best of their ability and return to school on time.
- Parents to support their child at home.
- School to set and give feedback for homework.
- School to support children and parents with homework.

Help with Homework

- Homework timetables will be available on the termly newsletters.
- Support for homework can be found on the website. www.allsaintsilkley.bradford.sch.uk
- Additional homework ideas can be found on the website.

