- 100g whole wheat flour
- 4 tablespoons of cold water
- 1 tablespoon of vegetable oil

Equipment

- Mixing bowl
- Wooden spoon
- Fridge
- Rolling pin
- Frying pan

What you do...

- 3 Bit by bit, add the water and mix everything together until you have a soft dough. Top tip: Add a little more water if it is too dry, and a bit more flour if it is too wet.
- 4 Knead the mixture together for around 10 minutes and then pop the dough in the fridge for about 45 minutes.
- 5 Take the dough out of the fridge and divide into 6 equal balls.
- 6 Dust the table with a little bit of flour and roll each ball of dough out into a thin circle.
- 7 Heat a frying pan on the hob. Once hot carefully place a dough circle in the pan.

How to Make Spicy Rice for Eid

You will need...

Ingredients

- 225g of basmati rice
- 2 tablespoons of vegetable oil
- 1 onion
- 2 cloves
- 3 cardamom pods
- 1 cinnamon stick
- Half a teaspoon of cumin seeds

Equipment

- Large pan
- Hob
- Wooden Spoon
- Measuring jug
- Bowl
- Sieve
- Chopping knife and board

What you do...

- 1 Wash the rice under cold running water and put to one side for later.
- 2 Cook the onions until they are soft and golden brown. Make sure you keep stirring so that the onions do not burn! Once cooked, tip the onions into a bowl and put to one side. Top tip: If the onions are cooking too quickly and starting to burn, turn the heat down a little and add a teaspoon of cold water.
- 3 Keep the pan on the hob and add the cloves, cardamom, cinnamon stick and cumin seeds and cook for 1 to 2 minutes.
- 4 After you have cooked off the spices, add the rinsed rice you put to one side earlier with 550 millilitres of water. Cover the pan with a lid and bring to the boil.
- 5 Once the pan is boiling, add the cooked onions back into the pan and turn the heat to low. Cook for a further 10 to 15 minutes until the rice is cooked. Top tip: The rice should be soft and fluffy. If the rice is still a bit crunchy cook it through for a little longer.
- 6 Remove the cinnamon stick once the rice has cooled a little and serve!

How to Make Coconut Squares for Eid

You will need...

Ingredients

- 250g sweetened condensed milk
- 250g icing sugar plus a little extra for dusting
- 200g desiccated coconut
- Pink edible food colouring

Equipment

- Wooden spoon
- Bowl
- Chopping board and knife
- Rolling pin
- Sieve

What you do...

- 1 In the bowl, mix the condensed milk and icing sugar together. The mixture will start to get very stiff but keep on going until it is completely combined.
- 2 Add in the coconut to the mixture. Use your hands to really blend the mixture together.
- 3 Split the mix into two equal halves. Put one half to one side and keep one half in the bowl.
- 4 Add two drops of pink food colouring to the half of the mixture in the bowl and work this into the mixture. Top tip: Food colouring can be messy and stain your hands! Use the wooden spoon or put on some plastic gloves if you are mixing with your hands.
- 5 Put a little icing sugar in the sieve and dust your chopping board. This stops the mixture sticking.
- 6 First roll out the half of the mixture without the food colouring into a smooth rectangle. Put this to one side and repeat with the pink half.
- 7 Place the half of the mixture without the food colouring on top of the pink half. Roll the two mixtures together until you have a rectangle of two tone coconut ice about 3 centimetres thick.
- 8 Leave the mixture uncovered for at least 3 hours to set. If you have time, leave the mixture over night.
- 9 Once set, cut the rectangle into bite sized squares. Serve and enjoy!

- 5 Cut the mango flesh away from the skin and place in the blender with the yoghurt, milk and sugar.
