

Geography		Early Settlement Needs	Year 3
Key Vocabulary		Key Knowledge	Place names
WORD	DEFINITION	<ul style="list-style-type: none">❖ Many of the places where people live today have existed for hundreds or even thousands of years.❖ A settlement can be a village, town or city.❖ Early settlements were often located near rivers and forests to provide food, water and shelter.❖ During the Bronze age, the land was used for agriculture. Small communities. began to develop.❖ During the Iron Age, Settlers arrived from Europe. Settlements now had a greater need for defences and so Hill forts were created.	Suffix	Meaning	Example
Agriculture	The farming of crops or animals.		-don	hill	Baildon
Landscape	The visible features of an area of land.		-ham	village	Addingham
Leisure	Time spent away from work relaxing.		-ing	people of	Ben Rhydding
Place Name	The name of a geographical location, such as a town, lake, or a range of hills.		-den	pasture	Buckden
Settlement	A place where people establish a place to live.		-ton	farm	Skipton
Settler	A person who moves to live in a new area.		-bury	fort	Dewsbury
Shelter	A place giving protection from bad weather or danger.		-borough	fort	Ingleborough
Site	An area of ground on which a town, building, or monument is constructed.		-wick	trading place	Warwick
			-hurst	wooded hill	Sandhurst
		-mere	lake	Windermere
What essentials do settlers need?		Types of Early Settlements

shelter	food
	water
		Stone Age Settlement (Temporary cave or Tepee)
		Bronze Age Settlement (Round Houses)
		Iron Age Settlement (Hill Fort Community)			