

Key Vocabulary

Key Knowledge and facts

WORD	DEFINITION
absorbent	a material that soaks up water
brick	a hard material that is used to build walls
clay	a natural material found in the ground cotton	a type of soft fabric which is often used to make clothes material	what something is made from.
opaque	does not allow any light to travel through slate	a natural material found in the ground and is used to build roofs
strong	not easy to break transparent	allows light to travel through waterproof	something that keep out water window frame	the outer part of the window that holds the glass in place window pane	the glass in a window

Materials which are suitable to use to build a window.

Objects which are suitable to use in windy weather.

Objects which are made from cotton.

Clothing which is suitable to wear in wet weather.

Materials which are suitable to make a house from.

Materials which are absorbent.

