Map of Transport Links from Ilkley

Roads, railways and canals are all modes of transport close to Ilkley.

Main routes follow the valley floor for ease of construction and travel.

Traditionally, canals were the main route for goods transport.

Canals are now mostly a tourist and leisure attraction.

Mill facts

- By the 1850s around 2/3 of England's wool was produced in Bradford.
- Cotton manufacturing began the industrial revolution in Leeds.
- Salts Mill was built by Sir Titus Salt between 1851 and 1871 to allow his workers to live in better conditions than the slums of Bradford.
- Houses, offices, shops, restaurants, art galleries and even an NHS outpatients' department are among many imaginative new uses for mills.
